1. On November 17, 2021 the judge of Elkhart County Circuit Court denied a motion previously filed on my behalf (20D03-1909-CC-001970). The record of proceedings will show show that the judge overseeing this case violated my rights to Due Process by not following the procedural process of allowing the other party involved acquitted time to respond to said motion. Attached documents (1&2)

2. The other party may have contested the motion, may have agreed to the motion or may have not responded at all. Point being, the appropriate time frame was not given for a response according to law. This is a direct violation of my rights to Procedural Due Process.
